A QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times. "How can Brown's Iron Bitters ours everything?" Well, it deem't. But it does ours any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe IRON Physicians recognize Iron as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any heading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows concluded that the constitution is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice, It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS no perfectly satisfactory iron combination had ever been found.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS the teeth, canse headache, or produce constipation—nil elber lron medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures indigestion, Billouaness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Maiaria, Chilis and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neural-gia-for all these ailments Iron is prescribed daily. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however, does bnuwn 5 number 1 cms, not cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts alowly. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active. In some the effect is usually more rapid and marked. The eyes begin at once to brighten; the skin clears up; healthy color comes to the checks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the QNLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it.

MR. RIDDLEBERGER GETS BOISTROUS AND CREATES A SCENE.

He Criticises the Chalr, Snubs Those Who Interrupt Him and Leaves the Chamber in Disgust-Clergymen Before the Senate Committee-Washington Notes.

ASHINGTON, Feb. 9-In the senate to-day on motion of Mr. Vest a bill was adopted appropriating $1,100,000 for the extension of the postoffice at Kansas City, Mo.

Petitions on a variety of subjects were presented, and the calendar was taken up for consideration of bills in their regular order.

Mr. Riddleberger interrupted with a renewed attempt to secure consideration of his resolution in reference to the British extradition treaty, and created a scene, accompanied by much laughter in the galieries. He declared that he had been unfairly treated, tint his resolution was entitled to consideration, that one set of rules applied to him and nnother to other senntors, and that there was a combination to prevent action upon his resolutiou.

He criticized the chair and snuhbed senators who endeavored to interrupt him until the chair repeatedly ruled him out of order and finally directed him to take his seat. Mr. Riddleberger remained standing and appealed from the action of the chair. The chair did not entertain the appeal but allowed other business to proceed, and Mr. Riddieberger withdrew from the chamber without resuming his seat.

A bill to authorize the sale of mineral bonds to aliens was discussed at length, but without action.

THE METROPOLITAN.

De Camp Surrendered by His Bondsmen. The Total Amount Borrowed.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 9 .- At the Metropolitan bank this morning everything was quiet. A few disappointed depositors came down to see how things looked but soon left.

In the bank Inspector Sanders, with the assistance of the clerks, was getting the books and papers in shape for the final report to the comptroller before a receiver is appointed. Privnte Wntchman George Honeyman, who resisted Deputy Marshal Costello when he arrested Vice President De Camp, was arraigned before Commissioner Dorger this morning and disnissed.

There were rumors again this morning of more arrests, and the names of directors were mentioned in connection therewith. "More Metropolitan sensations to-day, Se all."

"There will be no further arrests of Metropolitau officers," said District Attorney At 12:16, John R. De Camp was brought into the district attorney's office in the custody of Detectives George and William His bondsmen, John Carlisle and Albert

The exact sum borrowed by the directors' syndicate is $569,000, in the following amounts: Means, individually, $125,000; as trustee, $47,000; Roth, $81,000; Duckworth, $115,000; Gerke, $91,000; De Camp, $110,-

From this it appears that Messrs. Means, on his individual account, Duckworth and De Camp have vielated the Nationni banking act, which forbids the borrowing by any one of a sum in excess of one-tenth of the capital. It is thought the money was used in purchasing stock after the increase of the capital stock. "Has a receiver been appointed yet?" was asked of Bank Examiner Sanders. "No," said he. "He will be appointed by the comptroiler within a few days, but no selection has been made as yet."

HIS FRIENDS DISMAYED.

A Well Known Cathotic Attorney of Boston a Defaulter.

Boston, Feb. 9.-Lawyer J. C. Crowley has long been known in this city and elsewhere and universally respected as a man of probity. He has enjoyed a very extensive practice and has been supposed to derive a large income therefrom. About three months ago Mr. Crowley went to New York ostensibly upon business. Later it was publicly announced that Mr. Crowley bad taken a European trip, but ne general suspicion was aroused that all was not right. Yesterday it was learned that Mr. Crowley is badly involved in debt, and that several estates and parties for whom he has acted in the capacity of trustee have become absorbed in the ruin. It is estimated that the total liabilities will fall not far short of $75,000.

Mr. Crowley enjoyed the unbounded confidence of Archbishop Williams and of the Roman Catholic clergy of this diocese, and much of his practice was among the Irish Catholic element of the population, who are sufferers. He is a graduate of Harvard college and of the Cambridge law school, and has for several years been a prominent memper of the Boston school board. The foilowing are some of the estates invoived: John Donovan, Boston; Catherine O'Conner, Camhridge, Mnry Ryan, Lawrence. John Driscoll, South Boston; Lydia Callahan, East Boston; James MacMahon, Boston. The Bolger estate is also involved for $7,000. An institution that suffers by Crowley's dishonesty is the House of the Angel Guardian, Roxbury. He failed to return interest due on n mortgage held by the institution and was dismissed as its counsel. Mrs. Crowley when informed of her husband's wrong doing, heroically offered to give up all her property for the benefit of her husband's creditors. She offered to give up her home at 18 Highland avenue, which she owns. This offer will be accepted. Crowley is a member of the present school committee, which is an honorable office. He is also president of the Catholic Union and was at one time president of the Union Institution

A MILLIONAIRE MURDERED.

Amos J. Snell, of Chicago, Meets Death at the Hands of a Burglar.

CHICAGO, Feb. 9 .- The most sensational murder that has occurred in Chicago for many years took place about 2 o'clock this morning at which time Mr. A. J. Snell, one of the best known and wealthiest residents of the West Side, was shot and instantly killed by a burglar in the hall of his residence on the northwest corner of Washington boule-vard and Ada street. The only occupants of the house last night were Mr. Sneil, his two little granddaughters, two servant giris and a coachman, Mrs. Snell being in Milwaukee on a visit. That the murder was the work of a midnight robber there is no doubt. Entrance to the house has been effected by cutting a panel out of the kitchen door. Just how the murder was done will probably never be known. A shot awakened the coachman, who at once ran down stairs. On the floor of the front hall lay Mr. Sneli in the agonies of death and before he could utter a word, his life had gone ont. On n table in the parlor was piled the silverware of the family, and it was plain that the man while they were in the act of preparing to escape with their plunder. Two shots were fired, either of which would have been fatal. One bullet entered the left his victim had changed position, entered the skull half an inch above the left ear. it was ali the work of an instant, and as soon as the shots were fired the murderer fled, but exactly how he left the house is not known.

Mr. Sneil was one of the wealthiest and best known residents of the West Side, and had been connected with Chicago history for a great many years. He was born in Littie Falls, N. Y., sixty-three years ago, and came west in 1844. He leaves property to the amount of $3,000,000. Mr. Sneil leaves a wife, three daughters and a son, one of whom are married.

WANT PROTECTION, TOO.

FARMERS' VIEWS AS TO THE BENEFITS OF TARIFF.

Several Thousand Replies Sent In Response to a Request for Their Opinions Regarding What Protection Has Done for Agriculture-A Petition Prepared.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Some time ago the Tribune of this city invited an expression of opinion by individual farmers, agricultural societies and Granges regarding the influence of the tariff upon agricultural industry and the changes in the tariff desired by farmers. The result was the receipt of several thousand letters, which the Tribune submitted to committee consisting of Hon. Warner Miller, of New York, chairman; Cyrus C. Carpenter, John T. Rich, W. C. Morse, Edward Buri ough, J. O. Lymnn, W. M. Grosvenor, Hon. J. H. Haie, Counecticut, and Hon. James Wilson, of Iowa.

This committee was eharged with the work of making up the concensus of the fnrmers of the country, as shown by these letters. Its report, signed by all except Messrs. Hale and Wilson-the former having, however, approved ail the findings on which the document is based, and the latter being beyond reach in Texas or Mexico-was published in the Tribune to-day. It is accompanied by the following petition, which succinctive mbodies the fludings of the committee, and which farmers and farmers' organizations, who favor its proposition, are requested to sign and transmit to congress, or to the Tribune for ferwarding: To the Speaker of the House of Representatives: "The undersigned respectfully pray that agriculture may be more effectually protected by preventing fraudulent importations of cattle on pretense that they are for breeding only;

"By a duty of twenty cents per bushel on barley, with proportionate increase of duty

"By duties of twenty-five cents per bushel on potatoes and onions, $2 per hundred on cabbage, $3 per ton on hay, ten cents per pound on hops, twenty per cent. on beans and peas, five cents per dozen on eggs, thirty per cent, on fowls and poultry and on 'vegetables in their natural state or in salt or brine, not otherwise provided for,' with no removal or reduction of duties on market garden products now dutiable;

"By such increased duties on flax and on linen goods as will effectually encourage preparation of fiber and manufacture of

"By abolishing all duties on sugnr, with a bounty to home producers; "By preventing imports of leaf tobacco suitable for wrappers at the duty imposed on other leaf tobacco, and repealing all internal taxes on tobacco; "By restoring to wool growing the substantial protection enjoyed under the tariff of 1867, so modified as to meet the later forms of foreign competition and of evasion." The report proper is quite long, giving the statistics of farm and manufacturing growth in the United States during the past fifteen ars, to show that protection has brought thieves had been surprised by the murdered immigration, and with it a home market for agricultural products which permitted vast farm development, etc. With scarcely an exception the letters received point out that the tariff should have directly defended the breast, just above the nipple, and the other, industry of farmers in ways in which it has evidently fired before either the murderer or not. It should shield them as completely as any branch of manufacture, from the spasmodic and destructive competition which the cheapness and degradation of labor in some other lands permit. But the barrier around farming industry, at all points relatively low, has many gaps, partly from early oversight and partly from mistaken revision within the past few years. Even at this hour some important products of American farms are undersold in many of our cities and towns by the products of ili-paid or uupaid labor. Onions from Spain and Egypt appear in markets as far west as Chigaco. Tobacco raised by coolies In Sumatra lessens the reward of American growers. Wool elipped by slaves, by convicts, or by creatures scaroeiy less degraded, stops wool growing by an army of American farmers and sends 6,000,000 sheep to the slaughter. Potatoes and cabbages by the cargo, from piaces where women work daily in the fleids, come hither; as ballast, with eggs by the shipload from Holland, cattle from Mexico and barley from Canada. No less than 279 of the 326 farmers who refer at all to the duties on sugar, ask the abolition of those duties. The producers of tobacco do not ask any increase of duties, hut they carnestiy desire that the fraudulent importation of coolie-grown tobacco, by which their industry has been rendered unprofitable, may be stopped by more precise hanguage in defining the classes to which ex-Isting duties were meant to apply. The report then gives the statistics of the wool industry of the country, as affected by the tariff, and continues:

"The wool growers, who appeal to other farmers throughout the country, show that the prostration of their industry is imminent; that they number more than one million, and if forced to give up wool grow-ing must devote their land to other branches of agriculture, in which competition is already severe enough; that the prostration of the manufacture would also deprive American farmers of a considerable part of their home markets, and that, with woolen goods worn hy nine-tenths of the people as cheap now as in any other country, quality consid-WATERBURY, Conn., Feb. 9.-Stephen J. ered, the consumers have only to pay higher Meany, mannging editor of the Waterbury prices if the cnormous consumption of this country is to be supplied wholiy or in part by foreign looms. They therefore ask a united effort of all farmers to obtain from congress such action that this industry may receive the substantial protection enjoyed under the tariff of 1807."

HORRORS OF THE SEA.

Three British Steamships and Their Crews Given Up for Lost.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 9.—The British steamships Algitha, Capt. Barwise; Lufra, Capt. Grimstead and Darlen, Capt. McKee, all under charter to come to Philadelphia with iron ore, for Messrs. Nayior & Company, of this city, are missing, and the crews numbering in all eighty souls, are believed to have been 'ost. Early in December the three vessels under charter left the north of England for Carthagena, where they were to have loaded iron ore for Philadelphia, and that is the hist seen or heard of them.

According to Lloyd's, in London, the vessels are posted as missing. This is never done until the last hopes have vanished so there is little hope of any of the erew. The British steamship Elpis, which left England the same time, arrived in Carthagena, ionded, and reached this port safely, having experienced nothing but very moderate weather. A representative of Messrs, Naylor & Company said yesterdny they had no information about the vessels, only a cablegram from their London house which said they had been given up as lost with ali hands,

The Reading Police Being Paid Off-Ten

Collieries Working. POTTSVILLE, Pa., Feb. 9.—The coal and fron police were paid at Shenandoah yesterday, and affairs are so quiet that about thirty were permitted to visit their homes this morning. The railroaders are not receiving aid from the relief committee. They all seem to have money and say they can stand two months of strike yet before they need aid. The relief committee are giving Sham-okin strikers several dollars a piece in cash to-day. William Penn is the only colliery working around Shenandoah, and everything is quiet there. The police and sheriff's posse are still on duty. It is said that no effort will be made to start collieries there for some time now. Superintendent Verth, of the Reading Coal and Iron company, said this morning: have ten coliieries trying to work. Shipments are lessening, owing to the loose coal being almost all gathered up, and we have too few miners at work. We are working Tunnel Ridge, Suffolk, Alaska, Monitor, Henry Clay, Bear Valley, Keystone, North Ashland, Lincoln and Brookside. The latter is the only one working near full handed, and is shipping as much as all the others combined. We are not pushing matters

Stenbenville Saloonkeepers,

STEUBENVILLE, O., Feb. 9.—Some time since a number of saioonkeepers were suspected by the county auditor of having violated the provisions of the Dow law by selling whisky under a simple beer license, and detectives were put to work, and the auditor's surmises proved to be correct. The penalty of $250 was put on, and the county treasurer issued attachments against the property of the saloon men for refusal to pay. An injunction restraining the treasurer from collecting was allowed, but Judge Hance dissolved that injunction, and lengthy opinion held all the parties liable for the penaity. This action on the part of the law will probably compel some of the defendants to wind up tifeir business, while others can pay.

This occurred just below this piace on the Ohio side. The wound is a fatal one. Newman exonerates Daniels from ail biange.

His First Veto.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Feb. 9.—Governor West sent in his first veto yesterday. It was on a bill compeiling the courts to grant bail in the case of convicts who wish to appeal where the penalty is not greater than five years' imprisonment. The law now allows bail in such cases in the discretion of the judge. The design of the bail was to help the polygamists fight the laws. The governor to-day signed the old appropriation

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 9.—The Journal's Highmore, Dak., special says that Homer James, the Hyde county treasurer, who is $10,000 short in his accounts, has been discharged after an earnest prosecution. The cause of this action was that James was strictly honest and had not profited personally hy the shortage. He had simply been good natured and lent county money to any

The tend- doors. ency now is to hold all votes as illegal and void, when east for an ineligible candidate, and to declare the eligible candidate receiving the next highest number of votes entitled to the office.

Legislature in this case of Callon vs. Rar- thoroughly and the sweepings, placed in bardin, and same is sustained by rulings of rels until a sufficient quantity is guthered to the Indiania courts. Judge Cushing lays put it through a process to extract such pordown the same doctrine as deducible much expense. But, even after that, the refrom the decided cases, as does also fuse, or tailings, is not thrown away, but Grant and other authorities.

Our statute law shows that all votes cast for Mr. Rardin, whilst he held the position of U.S. Commissioner, were vold, and the Arkansas courts so hold, as did Chief Justice Thompson of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Would a Republican Legislature regire as much authority as is here given to seat the buildings. All the branch drains and one of their party?

the Democrats, and they can not be accused of allowing partisan motives to govern their action in the matter.

While the Legislature was undoubtedly justified in seating Callon, yet it seems the better plan would have been to let the question be settled by another election.

The actual loss is of course but a small percentage of the whole amount handled, but in the aggregate amounts to a considerable sum, and every possible effort is made, to reduce the amount of loss to the lowest possible figure. The core that is taken may be understood by the fact that every day or two Such was the recent decision of the the floors of the ussay building are swept tion of the metal as is possible without too sold to what are known as sweep smelters, men who purchase the sweepings from jewelry workers, as well as the assay office, and by their more expensive, but perfect, method of fusion, are able to extract even another small persentage from the unpromising ma-

LOST IN THE DRAINS.

Another means employed to obtain escaping particles is by the drains running from conduits are conducted into one large main drain pipe, which is provided with a series Mr. Callon's vote was not needed by of "S" traps, containing a deep settling pocket at the lower bend, into which the metals fall by force of gravitation. All the water used in the building, from the washing of the metals to the scrubbing of the floors, even that in which the employers have performed their ablutions (and it is one of the regulations that every employe shall carefully wash his hands before leaving the building), passes through this drain. The settling pockets are cleaned out once or twice a year, and the recovery from this source amounts to several hundred dollars-even as high as $1,200 to $1,500 n year. Still some of the lighter particles escape the traps, and pass out into the main sewer, and find their way into the East river, where no doubt quite a mine, or placer digging, has been formed at the mouth of the sewer.

But the most important operation for the recovery of escaped metal is the annual cleanmaces in which the smelting is done, and even a large part of the flues and chimneys are taken down, ground up, and such of the cluding a broken collect body, ining up, when every old cruelble and the furare taken down, ground up, and such of the metal as had adhered to them is extracted. But even in this case there is still a proportion that is carried out in the open air, and naturally settles down on the adjacent roofs and streets. Occasionally the roof of the assay bullding is swept off, but this more as a matter of curiosity to see what amount of gold and silver that may have been lost could be recovered from that source. A little gold and still more silver is always found in these deposits, but not enough to pay for the trouble of guthering.

DIRT FROM THE ROOF GUTTERS.

The other day, however, while some repairs were in progress at the sub-treasury building. it became necessary to clean out the roof gutters that had become somewhat clogged with the dirt and dust that had gathered for the two or three years preceding. The workmen shoveled the dirt down into the alleyway between the two buildings, when Assistant Superintendent Martin, of thoussay office, who is always on the lookout for leakages and possible recoveries, emused a sample of dirt to be assayed, and found it to was about balf a ton of this earth, which was at once conveyed to the barrels where the sweepings are thrown, and the government s just about $15 ahead on the transaction. Other buildings in the neighborhood which bave not been clemed off in years, doubtless, contain pay dirt even richer than that from the sub-treasury building.

Mr. Andrew Mason, superintendent of the assay office, laughed when he was usked if there was not enough of the metal on the streets by this time to pay to sweep it up and work it, and replied that even if all that had fallen for years still lay on the ground the amount would be so small in comparison to the trouble and expense of gathering and refining it that it would not be a paying undertaking. Moreover, the ordinary street cleaning operations had taken most of it off and the rain had washed most of the balance Into the sewer. But still a fittle could always be found. The percentage of loss is infinitesimal, he said, but the aggregate for several years would, he thought, make quite a presentable sum.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

WILSON AGAIN DRAGGED INTO PROMINENCE.

This Time by the Singular Conduct of M. Vigneau-Bismarck's Speech Generally Favorably Received Throughout Europe. Another Flood in China-Foreign.

Paris, Feb. 9.—The singular conduct of M. Vigneau, the judge d' instruction, with the management of the case against M. Wil-squahbling over the Deity. son, has dragged that party into prominence and made the affair in which he is involved killed an escaping prisoner. once more the talk of Paris, after public interest in the son-in-law of M. Grevy had. almost died out and the matter of the decorations excited the attention of few except the lawyers and those implicated in the alleged traffic in ribhons and crosses.

Although M. Vigneau was relieved of his functions as judge d'instruction and without allowing him, as has always been customary, to conduct to an end the cases on which he was engaged, he is still a magistrate and only a formal condemnation by the superior council of the magistracy can definitely remove him from that office.

Of course, there is a political side to the affair, and the rumor at once circulated through Paris that Vigneau's fauit has been too much vigor in the prosecution of M. Wilson, and that ex-President Grevy's friends were still powerful enough to crush a functionary who dared to do his duty. It was well known that Vigneau's mother had New York city on August 1 next. for her second husband a zealous employe of the house of Orleans, and that the future magistrate was educated in reverence of that family, at whose chateau he passed his boy- 1886.

Nothing more natural than that he should seek by any means in his power to prove; guilty the son-in-iaw of the man who signed the decree banishing the count of Paris and his family, and despite his summary suspension from duty, it is generally conceded that he has done so,

Some of the enemies of M. Wilson hastily concluding from the action of the authorities in removing M. Vigneau that an attempt was being made to continue the trial of the accused/under the jurisdiction of a magistrate less zealous than M. Vigneau, questioned the minister of justice concerning the matter in the chamber of deputies, when M. Fallieres replied, rather theatrically, that justice would follow its course "normal, regular, in its independence complete and absolute," and promised that should M. Wilson be found guilty the full penaity of the law will be inflicted upon hlm. All this sounds very well, hut nobody believes that anything of the kind will be done.

Russlan Press Comments.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 9.—Ti pacific tone of Bismarck's speech produces an excellent impression.

The Novoe Vremya says: "The speech was a masterpiece. Prince Bismarck was caim, self-reiiant and perhaps sincere throughout, and his speech was undonhtedly pacific in tone. The speech was well delivered. The statements contained in it were too clear to deserve hostile criticism. The attack on the Russian press could equally have been addressed to the German and Austrian press. The other passages in the speech are such that every Russian patriot would gladly repeat them. The peroration was especially full of deep feeling.'

The Moscow Gazatte, discussing the Austro-German treaty, says: "Henceforth it will be impossible for Russia to conflde in allies se hostilities toward her have been proved. The ailiance between Russia, England and France must be effected to counterbalance the 'peace league,'

Generally Favorably Received.

BERLIN, Feb. 9.—Prince Bismarck's speech is the general topic of conversation in political circles all over Europe, and is generally tavorably received. In London it is thought to be weak on the abandonment of the defense of Turkey.

Bismarck in his speech referred to certain other powers with which Germany has concluded treaties of alliance similar to those between Germany and Italy. It is rumored that Spain, Roumania and Sweden are the countries referred to.

Confusion on the Russian Frontler.

St. Petersburg, Feb. B .- Gen. Vannov ski, the minister of war, Is holding frequent conferences with the czar regarding the position on the Russian frontier. Trustworthy reports say that the utmost confusion pre vails in the transport and commissariat services. It is the accepted belief in oilicial circles that the government will make no change in the military measures already determined upon.

The Trade of London.

LONDON, Feb. 9.-The returns of the board of trade for the month of January, just is sued, show an increase of imports by 3,760, 600 pounds, and of exports by 770,000 pounds, in comparison with January, 1887.
